

Disclosure of Criminal Conviction

The job/placement for which you are applying involves substantial opportunity for access to children or vulnerable adults. It is therefore exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, 1974 and subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service check at enhanced level in accordance with the requirements of the Disclosure and Barring Service and the Police Act 1997. You are required to declare any convictions or cautions you may have, even if they would otherwise be regarded as "spent" under this Act and any cautions or bind-overs. The information you give will be treated in confidence and will only be taken into account in relation to an application where the exemption applies.

The disclosure of a criminal record, or other information will not debar you from appointment/placement unless the Council considers that the conviction renders you unsuitable for appointment. In making this decision the Council will consider the nature of the offence, how long ago and what age you were when it was committed as well as any other factors which may be relevant, including appropriate consideration in relation to the Council's published Equal Opportunities Policy.

Failure to declare a conviction, caution or bind-over may, however, disqualify you from appointment, or result in summary dismissal if the discrepancy comes to light. If you would like to discuss whether a conviction you have would be likely to debar you from working with children or vulnerable adults you may telephone Payroll & Recruitment Services on 0300 126 7666.
